HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Happy Super Bowl Sunday! I know there will be many watching as the Philadelphia Eagles take on the Kansas City Chiefs! Even if your team is not in it, or you just don't like football, you'll probably watch the Super Bowl commercials.

Recently, I saw a statistic that, on average, over 100 million people watch the Super Bowl each year. According to the Neilson Ratings, 70% of homes in the United States, with a television, tune into the Super Bowl. Forbes Magazine reported that, on social media, there are around 45 million interactions regarding the Super Bowl. No matter what our opinion is of the Super Bowl, I think we would all agree that, according to the statistics above, people "talk up" this game. People get together to watch the game, they talk about the game in the weeks leading up to it and for weeks after the game, and they come together on social media to talk about the game, the commercials, and the halftime show. It could be said that people put a lot of stock into this game.

Sometimes as I watch the Super Bowl, perhaps the biggest supporting event of the year, I think to myself, "Imagine if the same amount of hype and enthusiasm that surrounds the Super Bowl existed over going to Mass and receiving Jesus Christ in the Eucharist! Imagine if over the course of a weekend if 100 million people went to Mass in our country and there were 45 million social media posts about the Eucharist and Jesus being present to us. Imagine if we talked for a week at work around the water cooler or in our families and social circles about the fact that every time we go to Church we encounter Jesus Christ as He is truly present to us in the Eucharist!" Sometimes I have to remind myself that the Super Bowl is just a game and that Jesus is real and He is with us! Every time we gather for Mass, He is there. When I think about that, I am reminded that I have to "step up my game" and be sure that I talk up my faith in Jesus Christ a 100 million times more, or 70% more, of 45 million times more than I do now! May the best team win! Happy Super Bowl Sunday!

Peace and all good things,
Father Manno

Hey Everyone!

Recently the staff of the parish gathered to discuss everything going on across various ministries at our Parish. One thing that was highlighted was the fact that we are all noticing so many young families sitting in the pews and joining us at weekend Masses!

The Mass is the central part of Catholic life. It fuels our life and gives us strength for the journey ahead. It is so encouraging to see so many families at Mass, especially those with little children.

Great job to all of our families leading your children to have a deeper relationship with Jesus through participation in Mass!

In Christ,
Nick, Patty, Vince

SCHOOL UPDATES

Why enroll your child in Holy Family School?

Kindness, Generosity, Acceptance, Hospitality, Love, Encouragement

These, among other timeless values, are the fundamental teachings of Jesus Christ. By design, they form the very foundation of Holy Family School - and they impact every aspect of both the academic and social experience of our students.

Academics

Holy Family School offers a comprehensive, Catholic primary school education. Whether your child is entering school for the very first time or transferring mid-program from another school or community, our teachers and aides are committed to making each child feel welcome. Additionally, we offer a before and after school program and a range of supporting in-school services designed to fit your child's needs.

Our Faith

We are devoted to the values and teachings of Christ. We provide ample opportunity for prayer and the observance and celebration of the Catholic faith, including morning prayer and prayer services, celebration of Mass in our Holy Family Parish, religious instruction by faculty and clergy, preparation for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Eucharist, May Crowning, and observance of Holy Days.

Next week we will include information on our nursery and preK programs, our extracurriculars, our credentials and infrastructure.

Registration is open at holyfamilyschoolsyr.org.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Matthew 5: 17-37

In our Gospel today, after first proclaiming the Beatitudes and then calling the disciples salt and light, Jesus now continues his Sermon on the Mount by teaching his disciples a new way of observing the commandments. His way of approaching the ancient law is not to throw it out but rather fulfill it, which is in keeping with Jesus's ministry in general.

Jesus wants us to look not merely "at the commandment" and the actions which the commandment either permits or prohibits, but he also wants us to scrutinize our intentions and the movements of our own hearts. For example, the first law Jesus addresses is murder. Jesus looks at the law and suggests that this commandment also calls for the elimination of anger which would eventually cause someone to kill another. But he goes further and says we have to look at the anger in one's heart and not simply overturn it, but it also must include reconciliation with the other. It asks us not simply to refrain from an evil action, but we must identify and correct the root causes for this evil action in the first place. Jesus asks us to live out the commandments..."and then some."

It is in the "and then some" that Jesus asks us to dive deeper and if we are going to truly embrace the Gospel teaching of Jesus, you have to be willing to go deeper in your faith and allow God into parts of your lives that you may have "put a lock" on. Because if you do, you will find that new life is a life of fullness of love, mercy, surrender, zeal, conversion and transformation! Jesus asks each of us to go past the old and limited righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, and I promise if you do, that God will do "and then some" in each of your lives!

Blessings,
Dc. Scott
