HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Thank you for a great Catholic Schools Week!

Thank you to everyone who worked to make Catholic Schools Week a great success! Our youth ministry programs just all completed a fantastic series on incorporating various methods of prayer into our daily lives. We hope this will help our group center their lives around Jesus more intentionally this year moving forward.

Next, we are going to dive into a mini-series on the Eucharist and praying in Eucharistic Adoration; followed by a pre-Lent series to participate in our Lenten 1-1-1 Challenge. Join this Lenten Challenge with us. The challenge is as follows:

- Choose 1 thing to remove from your daily life to make more room for Jesus (No binging Netflix shows, for example).
- Add 1 thing into your daily life that will bring you closer to Jesus (If you gave up Netflix, instead of watching, replace that time with an added Bible study time, for example).
- Choose 1 Sin in your life to commit to removing to the best of your ability with the help of God's grace.

We hope this challenge helps you have a blessed Lent!

God bless!

SCHOOL UPDATES

Catholic Schools Week was a wonderful time to celebrate our faith, help our neighbors and share our many blessings with each other. Thank you to all who visited our Open House! Many parishioners came back to see where they, or their children and grandchildren went to school. It was a great time to share stories from the past and to hear how much the school has been updated. We are also most grateful for the best wishes that were shared for all of our faculty, staff and students.

The rest of the week had a different focus each day. On Saturday we celebrated the Daddy Daughter Dance and that was a sold out success! We are truly blessed at Holy Family School.

OUTREACH & FOOD PANTRY

According to a survey of the 11-county area of Food Bank of CNY approximately 145,000 who live in the region are facing food insecurity. Of that number, 43% have had to choose between paying for food and daily expenses (utilities, medicine, etc.). This forces many to go hungry.

We are fortunate enough to be a resource to help them with food. Thank you for caring.

ITEMS NEEDED FOR THE PANTRY: WOMEN'S DEODORANT AND NON-CREAM SOUPS

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Mark 1: 29 - 39

Being sick, whether it is a mild case of the sniffles or a down and out illness, doesn't tend to bring out the best in us. We are not always pleasant and may become more irrational than we are on our better days. And no one suffers this backlash more than the caretakers who are just trying to help.

My son hates taking medicine. No matter how poorly he is feeling or what the ailment is, he will not take medication without an extensive amount of cajoling first – and that is only if I am lucky enough to convince him at all. I am not sure why and he is not able to put a reason into words either. Is it fear of the medication itself? Is it the potential taste that intimidating? Is he just satisfied wallowing in his own suffering? Who knows?! But as his parent I desperately want him to take the medicine and feel better.

When reflecting on the healing we see take place in this week's gospel, I am reminded of this parenting struggle. God – the ultimate parent - wants to provide us comfort and healing in all our life's struggles. He wants us to 'take the medicine' and trust that he knows what we need to heal. Too often, we hold back - depriving ourselves of this healing. Maybe we are withholding forgiveness of others or of ourselves. Perhaps we fall into the habit of negative thinking. We might find ourselves distracted by what is not our purpose. What is holding you back from being open to that healing?

- Patty D'Angelo
