HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Hope Appeal 2022 Update

Dear Friends,

As of December 31, 2022, Holy Family Church has raised $172,510.00 of the $122,084.26 (141%) Hope Appeal goal! This is incredible! Thank you so much for your generous support of this appeal and the far-reaching impact it has throughout the seven county Diocese of Syracuse. Since we have raised $50,000 beyond our goal, all of that overage will come back to Holy Family Church for our use. Currently, 649 families out of 3,700 (roughly 18% of our parish) have made gifts to the Hope Appeal. The average gift per family is, $265.81. There is a balance of $14,187.74 due on pledges. Again, thank you for your generous donations to the appeal. Not only does it allow our Diocesan Church to do great things in the name of Jesus, but it is also the biggest fundraiser we have at Holy Family as we get so much back in overage. Thank you for making Jesus known to so many! God will reward us for all that we do to reveal His love, presence, and truth in our world!

With gratitude,
Father John Manno

CALENDAR

Hey everybody,

Our new year is off to a great start! The highlight from this past week was learning the true power of prayer in our lives.

EDGE & Faith Discovery had an amazing time talking about the power of prayer at a recent prayer service they held for the youth. They wrote their prayers down and placed them in a basket before the alter.

During this prayer service the group discussed the recent events surrounding the Buffalo Bills & Damar Hamlin, and it was powerful for all of us to recognize the power of prayer. As Josh Allen said in a recent post-game press conference, "God is real."

There isn't anything more powerful than that. God bless you all this week.

In Christ,
Nick, Patty, Vince

SCHOOL UPDATES

Holy Family School is off to a great start in 2023. Our Diocese is celebrating Catholic Schools Week beginning on January 29th. Our school will be a part of the 10:30 am Mass, followed by Open House from 11:30 - 1:30. We will have classrooms open for visits and a book fair during that time.

At 1:00pm, if you are so inclined, our girl's 3rd and 4th grade basketball team will be playing Holy Cross in our gymnasium.

The rest of the week will be filled with activities tied to our theme: We are a Piece of God's Plan and the Face of the Future. More to follow next week!

GOSPEL REFLECTION

John 1: 29-34

I often wonder why this time of our Catholic year is called 'Ordinary Time'. There is nothing ordinary about the way Jesus lived His life and He doesn't expect us to be simply ordinary either.

In today's reading, John doesn't merely call Jesus the Son of God. He takes it even further and addresses Jesus as the Lamb of God – a clear connection to the sacrificial lamb. Jesus is one with sacrifice.

When you hear the word sacrifice what comes to mind? Is it a grand gesture like Iron Man flying a nuclear bomb into another dimension to save the world? Or more personal and small scale such as forgoing your morning trip to the coffee shop for a simple brewed cup of coffee from home? Myself, as a parent, I feel like sacrifice is part of everyday life. I long for the day when each meal isn't met with disdain and my car is not covered in stale snacks and sticky fingerprints.

But God wants more from us.

We are called to be a living sacrifice. What does a living sacrifice look like? It is love. I don't know about you, but love is at the root of all that is good in my life. If someone were to ask me why I am Catholic, the answer every time would be love. God loves me and provides me with all I could ever need and now I am accountable for bringing that love to others.

Consider challenging yourself to find ways that you can move beyond the ordinary. Be a living sacrifice and that beacon of God's love to everyone you encounter.

Patty D'Angelo
